was en route to Atlanta, Georgia, and accompanied by a Negro law student. A Negro from Howard University and a student believed to be from Duke University would join the group and they would board a bus at Atlanta at 1:30 p.m. en route to Birmingham. [redacted] is supposed to know of the details and Montgomery is checking with [redacted] This group is not connected with CORE. ✓

10:41 a.m.

Bus had passed through Selma.

1:18 p.m.

Second bus is getting ready to leave the station. The police cars are going out into the street and the bus has just departed from the station itself. The convoy is composed of the following: A county car occupied with men from the Sheriff's Office or detectives, is in the lead. This is followed by 12 city policemen on motorcycles; six Alabama Highway Patrol (AHP) cars (each car containing one patrolman and three National Guard (NG)); the Trailways bus; nine AHP cars and representatives of the press.

2:00 p.m.

Reverend M. L. King reportedly had left the bus station in the second convoy riding in a 1960 white Chevrolet Impala. They do not know whether or not King is merely riding to the outskirts of the city.

3:56 p.m.

The second bus with the freedom riders is at Cuba, Alabama, at a bus stop.

4:10 p.m.

✓ Second bus still at Cuba and they were apparently ~~waiting~~ awaiting individuals from MHP. He stated that ~~they~~ there were two planes flying overhead, one marked "USA." A MHP reportedly had a car stationed at every major area in the section along the route.

Memorandum for Mr. ^kosen

4:25 p.m.

SAC Casper reported that the second bus had crossed the Mississippi state line and word had been received in Montgomery that the individuals in the first bus had been arrested in Jackson.

4:27 p.m.

Casper advised that the second convoy, second section which was following MHP had stopped about one-half mile beyond the Mississippi line.

4:37 p.m.

Casper advised that the first detachment of AHP who had escorted the first convoy, first section, to the Mississippi line were returning eastward and had been dispatched to meet the group from Atlanta and provide escort service. Troopers will be stationed at Opelika, Auburn and Tuskegee. Floyd Mann, Director of the Highway Patrol, stated that in view of the distance and the time element he did not think troopers would be able to meet the bus at the Alabama - Georgia line.

Casper advised that the stop made by the bus which had just entered Mississippi was in front of a colored place of business and some of the passengers had gone into the business establishment.

Casper advised that information had been received that the new group coming to Montgomery from Atlanta was not getting too much attention from the Department. White and Kennedy had indicated in a conversation that perhaps the group would "shift for ~~themselves~~ themselves" although they felt local authorities should be advised. Casper stated local authorities previously alerted.

It was indicated that White had stated "We are through putting the big arm on."

6:40 p.m.

✓ Casper advised that [] Assistant to Rev. King, had called the Montgomery Resident Agency. [] had a report from news sources that the NG was not going to protect the riders from Atlanta after they arrived. As for Federal protection, this request had been relayed to the Department representatives at Maxwell Field. Groups were gathering around the bus station.

b6

Memorandum for Mr. Rosen

6:45 p.m.

Casper advised that he had personally observed that city police and NG were at the bus station. This information was also known by Deputy Attorney General White and it is not believed by White they should be given any Federal assistance.

6:53 p.m.

NG and local police had put a cordon of officers around the bus station. State police are escorting the bus in. People are congregating on corners. Some of the individuals in the ^{bus} crowd have been noted to be people who were present at the station when the trouble occurred last Saturday. One of the witnesses had ~~definitely~~ definitely identified a person as being there when the trouble started 5/20/61.

Bernard Lee, Assistant to the Rev. Martin Luther King, had called the Resident Agent. He reported that the NG had refused to provide escort for the riders to Rev. Abernathy's home although they previously had promised they would. This information was passed to the Department representatives at Maxwell Field.

Casper advised that the bus was coming down the street with the city police escort and NG and city police were still stationed around the bus.

6:59 p.m.

The bus arrived at the bus station. All is quiet. It is noted that Departmental Attorney [redacted] is in the crowd at the bus station.

b6
b7C

7:04 p.m.

The NG had put there bayonets down to turn back five white "punks" who had tried to break through. Casper said reports were that there are about 350 people in the crowd and about 90% to 95% were white.

7:15 p.m.

Casper stated he had personally looked out the window

Memorandum for Mr. Rosen

and there were at least 1000 people at the station. He advised that three yellow cabs had now pulled up in front of the station and 15 young teen-age "punks" had gathered in front of the cabs. Casper reported someone had thrown a brick at a car. He noted that the freedom riders were in private cars.

7:20 p.m.

Casper reported there was an unconfirmed news report that someone had thrown a brick at the Rev. Martin Luther King. Casper advised that crowds were not being retained far away from the bus station. He stated they were directly across the street and also at a restaurant or business establishment next to the bus station.

7:25 p.m.

Casper advised that the riders were leaving in two cars, Oldsmobile and Chevrolet, and were going to Rev. Abernathy's for supper. The cars were being escorted with a NG car in front. This was followed by the Oldsmobile and Chevrolet, an Army car, a Jeep, a NG vehicle and a car of detectives. He advised that the cars had a blockade in the 1300 block of Hall ~~St~~ Street where Abernathy resides. He stated that they had identified in the group [redacted] and William Coffin.

b6

Rev. Wyatt Walker had met the group and appeared to be the spokesman. He stated that he had been promised an escort and given such escort until 2:00 p.m. and then this had been canceled. He said that the NG did not give King or Abernathy any protection and recommended that they stay close to their residences. He related that they planned to go to Abernathy's home at 1327 South Hall where they would spend the night. They indicated that the two cars (Oldsmobile and Chevrolet) were the first not allowed to come into the loading area at the station but Walker had made arrangements and they were permitted to enter. He stated that ~~as~~ each individual was paying for his own trip out of his personal funds so that they could exercise their constitutional rights. Reporters asked Walker about Attorney General's comment that unnecessary travel into Alabama should be postponed and that the Attorney General ~~was~~ favored a cooling off period. Walker had nothing to state on this matter. He indicated that they did not have any meetings scheduled but maybe there would be a press meeting this evening.

Memorandum for Mr. Rosen

Two men tried to give tickets to the riders which were bus tickets to provide transportation out of town. These men were stopped by the AHP. They were identified as [redacted]

[redacted] They appeared to be drunk. [redacted] stated he was trying to go to [redacted] where his child lives. He stated he didn't care if he got killed, that he was doing what he thought he had a right to do. Reverend Coffin stated that the bus had been escorted from county to county by various officers all along the route. One of the riders had stated that the purpose of the visit was simply social. One of the riders stated that he thought the Montgomery bus station had been called up previously by a group from Mobile and he did not know of the trouble which had occurred last Saturday in Montgomery. Casper didn't believe this statement.

He stated that the NG was placing guards around Abernathy's home. They had about 30 men. These were all around the lot, the front, the back and both sides. The lieutenant in charge of the guard had reportedly asked for additional men although there were no crowds around. There were about 75 colored people along the block in the area. Casper advised that this house was located in a colored section.

[] The following information was furnished by SA []
[] at Jackson, Mississippi.

Time of call: 3:42 p.m.

No individuals have congregated at the Jackson Bus Station. Twenty-two uniformed policemen were on duty at the station as well as eight plain-clothesmen. Time of call: 3:47 p.m.

The bus carrying the "Freedom Riders" was at that time passing through Pearl, Mississippi, going approximately 65 miles per hour, then was located just outside the city limits of Jackson.

The Liaison Agent at the Jackson Police Department advised that officers of the Jackson Police Department had reported that [] a Jackson bootlegger, was at that time following the bus carrying the "Freedom Riders" in his black Cadillac. The Jackson Police Department was aware of [] actions and planned to take him "out of circulation" in the event he attempted to interfere with the bus in any way.

Time of call: 3:55 p.m.

The bus carrying the "Freedom Riders" was at that time entering the Trailways Bus Depot in Jackson. As the "Freedom Riders" disembarked from the bus, four of them attempted to proceed to the white restaurant and the remainder attempted to proceed to the white rest rooms. They were taken by officers of the Jackson Police Department, placed in the "paddy wagon" and immediately transported to the police headquarters.

Time of call: 4:08 p.m.

A group consisting of both white and colored was at that time heading toward police headquarters. The group was orderly. There was no difficulty. The number of the group was estimated at approximately 200 persons. The group did not congregate at the police headquarters, but proceeded on past the building.

Memorandum to Mr. Parsons

DETAILS

The 27 freedom riders proceeded from Montgomery, Alabama, to Jackson, Mississippi, on 5/24/61. //

The first group of eleven Negroes and one white man left Montgomery a few minutes after 7:00 a.m., CST, by Trailways bus. The bus was heavily escorted by state and local authorities to the Mississippi line where the escort duties were assumed by state and local authorities of Mississippi. //

Although it had been first planned that the bus would stop at Meridian, Mississippi, it was rerouted and arrived in Jackson at approximately 3:55 p.m., CST. Four of the freedom riders attempted to enter the white restaurant and the remainder of the group attempted to proceed to the white rest rooms. The entire group was arrested on charges of breach of the peace and failure to obey the lawful order of a police officer. The group is held in lieu of $1,000 bond each. A list of those arrested is attached to this memorandum. //

Fourteen Negro and one white freedom riders left Montgomery in a second Trailways bus shortly after 11:00 a.m., 5/24/61. This bus also was under heavy convoy and was also routed around Meridian, Mississippi. It arrived in Jackson, Mississippi, at approximately 4:45 p.m., CST, and the second group was arrested when they attempted to use white facilities at the bus depot. A list of those arrested is attached to this memorandum. //

The second group was also charged with breach of the peace and failure to obey the lawful order of a police officer. Each member of both groups is being held in lieu of $1,000 bond and they are scheduled to appear in Municipal Court, Friday, 5/26/61, at 4:00 p.m. //

Information was received that [] one of those arrested, held a telephone discussion with Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall who was in the presence of the Attorney General at the time [] stated to Burke Marshall that the arrested students are not going to make bond and if they lose the case, they will appeal. They will make no attempt to make bond during any appeal action. [] who is apparently acting as spokesman for the group, is also reported to have turned down an offer made to the group by local authorities that they be released on their own recognizance. //

Although there was no significant incident in connection with the trip of the freedom riders from Montgomery to Jackson, the Mississippi State Highway Patrol did receive information that [] a bootlegger from Jackson, allegedly had stated he had a homemade bomb which he would throw if he could get close enough to the bus. The Jackson Police Department later reported that [] was following the bus carrying the freedom riders in his black Cadillac. The police were watching him closely in order to "take him out of circulation" if he attempted to interfere with the bus in any way. It is noted that [] was recently fined in connection with racial violence that developed out of the efforts of Negroes to integrate the Jackson Public Library. U

Information was received from Montgomery that the Attorney General had chastised ~~Assistant~~ Attorney General Orrick for putting out a press release over the telephone to the effect that 112 prison guards, who had been sworn in as special deputies at Montgomery, were released because they were no longer needed. U

On 5/24/61 an editorial captioned "Surely We Can Be Fair" appeared in the "Birmingham Post-Herald." This editorial stated that earlier in the week the paper mentioned the names of two deputy U. S. Marshals who were sent to Montgomery. It was alleged that the wife of one of these deputies had received so many threatening calls that she had been forced to leave the city. The Attorney General instructed that this matter be handled as a special. U

It was determined that ^{ALA} the deputy marshals sent to Montgomery from Birmingham were [] [] No threatening calls were received by either [] [] did leave Birmingham to stay with [] [] did so because [] [] has been released from duty at Montgomery to return home. Neither [] [] could offer any explanation for the allegations contained in the above editorial. U

This group held a press conference through the Southern Christian Leadership Conference at Dr. Martin Luther King's church in Atlanta, Georgia. They furnished their identities and the purpose of their trip. They purchased tickets for Montgomery, Alabama, on a Greyhound Bus which left Atlanta at 12:30 p.m., Eastern Standard Time (1:30 p.m., Washington time), which was bound for New Orleans. They indicated that they expected to contact Dr. Martin Luther King at Montgomery and would later travel on to Birmingham, through the State of Mississippi and on to New Orleans. The bus carrying this group arrived in Montgomery at approximately 5:00 p.m., Central Standard Time (7:00 p.m., Washington time).

Memorandum to Mr. Parsons

The National Guard and local police had put a cordon of officers around the bus station prior to the arrival of the bus. State police officers escorted the bus into the terminal. U

Reverend Wyatt Walker, Assistant to Dr. King, met the group at the bus station and has related that they plan to bring the group to Reverend Abernathy's home where they would spend the night. Reporters asked Walker about the Attorney General's comment that unnecessary travel into Alabama should be postponed in order to allow a "cooling off period" and Walker replied he had no comment on this matter. It is noted that Deputy Attorney General White had previously stated to our Agents in Montgomery that he did not feel that this additional group of riders should be given any Federal assistance. U

At 11:45 p.m., Washington time, SAC Casper advised that General Graham of the Alabama National Guard informed that he had had a conference with Reverend Wyatt Walker and had related instructions from Governor Patterson that full protection should be given to the citizens of Alabama. General Graham pointed out that Walker and his group were an unusual group and needed more protection than the ordinary citizenry. He requested that Walker, King, Abernathy or any of their group immediately advise the National Guard when they plan to leave Abernathy's residence and furnish the identity of the party and destination. General Graham felt that under these conditions the Alabama National Guard could protect them throughout the city. He pointed out that the biggest security problem is protecting Abernathy's residence and felt that floodlights should be installed to cover all approaches, including the rear. Thirty National Guardsmen are stationed at Abernathy's house. U

SAC Casper advised that General Graham specifically asked that the officials of the FBI be given his personal thanks for the information he had received regarding the possible ambush of the buses carrying the original group of freedom riders

from Montgomery, Alabama, to Jackson, Mississippi. This apparently refers to the information we furnished General Graham relative to the group headed by [redacted] which reportedly was going to bomb one of the buses as it approached the Mississippi State line. The general stated he felt the information was completely reliable and this ambush would have taken place if adequate security measures had not been taken to protect the buses en route to Mississippi. He stated he personally observed the area designated for the ambush and felt it was a perfect place for such action and had no doubt that these hoodlums would have attempted to bomb the bus. u

In conclusion General Graham again expressed his appreciation for the FBI's cooperation in this matter and added that he has always been an admirer of Mr. Hoover and hoped that his good relations with the FBI would continue. u

SAC Casper advised at 12:05 a.m., 5/25/61, that the Assistant Chief of Police, J. B. Brucker, Montgomery Police Department, had been informed by Colonel Price of the Alabama National Guard that the Guard was withdrawing their patrols from the streets in the city; however, they were continuing to maintain Guardsmen at the bus and train depots, the airport and at Reverend Abernathy's home. The withdrawn National Guardsmen will be stationed at the National Guard Armory and be ready for immediate action if necessary. u

The Department has previously obtained a temporary injunction restraining certain Klansmen and organizations from interfering with freedom riders. The Department has now petitioned the U. S. District Court, Montgomery, Alabama, to include the following law enforcement officers in this injunction:

Eugene "Bull" Connor, Birmingham Police Commissioner;
Jamie Moore, Birmingham Chief of Police;
Lester B. Sullivan, Commissioner of Public Affairs in Montgomery;
Goodwin J. Ruppenthal, Montgomery Chief of Police. u

Memorandum to Mr. Parsons

In this regard, SAC Jenkins of Birmingham and SA Spencer Robb, Senior Resident Agent at Montgomery, will testify for the Government at Montgomery 5/29/61 concerning the notification given local officials with regard to the arrival of freedom riders at Birmingham on 5/14/61 and at Montgomery 5/20/61. u

With regard to the burning of the Greyhound Bus at Anniston, Alabama, on 5/14/61, [redacted] four subjects arrested by Bureau Agents 5/22/61, has been released on $5,000 bond which was arranged by [redacted] of Anniston and Kenneth L. Adams, Grand Dragon, U. S. Klans, Knights of the Ku Klux Klan, Inc. u

A survey is being made at Montgomery to determine present and future personnel requirements. Recommendations regarding the release of personnel will be made this morning. u

A direct line has now been installed between the Bureau and the New Orleans Office. The direct line from the Bureau to Meridian, Mississippi, has been removed. u

At 11:25 p.m., Central Standard Time, 5/24/61, the National Guard reported that efforts were allegedly being made for an integrated group to use the lunch counter at the Montgomery railroad station. This was determined to be a false report and the lunch counter had been closed since 8:00 p.m., Central Standard Time. u

Unamerican Activities Committee, advised at Tampa, Florida, on May 31, 1961, that he had received "third hand" information to the effect that a male student at the University of South Florida, Tampa, was recently approached on the campus by a man in an effort to recruit said student to "sign up to fight the police." [redacted] advised that this man allegedly told the student he had already recruited 600 other young people for the same purpose.

[redacted] indicated that he was furnishing said information in view of information which had come to his attention indicating the expected arrival of the "Freedom Riders" at Tampa in about two weeks.

He stated that he has not been able to identify the man who is allegedly doing the recruiting or the student whom he approached, since the person who gave him the information is reluctant to identify the student and apparently does not know the name of the man who is recruiting.

With reference to the travel of [redacted] a member of the New York State Legislature, and [redacted] of the New York Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), [redacted] arrived in Atlanta, Georgia, at 7:40 p. m., last evening. They proceeded to the office of the Freedom Ride Coordinating Committee, which was set up by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee and the Congress of Racial Equality. The latter three organizations were included in the restraining order issued by U. S. District Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr., in Montgomery on 6/2/61. [redacted] remained at the office of the Freedom Ride Coordinating Committee for approximately one hour and then checked into the Negro YMCA in Atlanta, Georgia, for the evening.

This morning they purchased two tickets to Montgomery, Alabama, on a Greyhound bus and departed Atlanta at 7:15 a. m. this morning and are scheduled to arrive in Montgomery at 11:40 a. m. (Central Standard Time), 1:40 p. m., Washington time.

ACTION:

Since any possible testing of bus station facilities at Montgomery by [redacted] might constitute a violation of Judge Johnson's order, U. S. Attorney Hartwell Davis was contacted by the Mobile Office as to what action was desired in this matter. Davis stated that he desired the Bureau to take no action other than to observe [redacted] activities at the bus station and to advise him thereof in order that he may bring the matter to Judge Johnson's attention. Davis requested that Mobile follow the activities of [redacted] while they are in Montgomery.

John Murphy of the Civil Rights Division of the Department was also contacted concerning the matter and he advised that the Department desired that [] activities at the bus station be observed but that no further action be taken in the matter. Murphy also requested that Department be advised as to whether any public announcement has been made in New York, Atlanta, Montgomery or elsewhere concerning the declared purpose of [] trip to test bus facilities. Murphy was advised of USA Davis' request in the matter.

Mobile has been instructed to comply with the request of the U. S. Attorney and the Department.

Local authorities had previously been alerted in Montgomery. U. S. Marshal William Parker advised Mobile that he had received information from Commissioner of Police Sullivan that in view of the injunction, the police would not be permitted to interfere with the travelers; however, the police would afford protection for the bus from the city limits and protection for the individuals while in the bus station. Sullivan further stated that if the individuals [] left the bus station they would not receive any more protection than any other citizen.

[redacted] a member of the New York State Legislature, and [redacted] of the New York Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), arrived in Jackson, Mississippi, by airplane on June 8, 1961.

[redacted] entered the white men's rest room at the airport and were told by the police to move on. They then entered the waiting room and were again told to move on whereupon one of them reportedly said, "We are going to sit down. We are interstate passengers." They were then placed under arrest for breach of the peace.

"The New York Times" on June 8, 1961, carried an article which stated in part:

"Assemblyman Mark Lane and Percy Sutton,
President of the Manhattan Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, said yesterday they would leave tonight to investigate the arrests of freedom riders in Alabama and Mississippi.
They plan to offer assistance as lawyers."

Nine freedom riders arrived in Jackson from New Orleans by train on June 8, 1961, and were arrested without incident when they entered the white waiting room.

The eleven individuals mentioned above and ten freedom riders, who were previously arrested, were convicted of breach of the peace at Jackson, Mississippi, on June 8, 1961. Each was sentenced to four months in jail, which sentences were suspended and each was fined $200.

The Attorney General

A group of five freedom riders left Nashville, Tennessee, by train on the evening of June 8, 1961, en route to Jackson, Mississippi. They changed trains at Birmingham, Alabama, travelling from one station to another but did not test the facilities at Birmingham and no incident occurred. They arrived at Jackson, Mississippi, at 5:30 a.m. (Central Standard Time), June 9, 1961, and were arrested without incident when they tested the facilities.

[redacted] contacted the Chicago Office of the FBI on June 3, 1961, and stated that [redacted] of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) and is [redacted] for freedom riders in Chicago. She related that eight freedom riders were to leave Chicago by train at 7:00 p.m., June 8, 1961, to arrive in New Orleans at 4:45 p.m., June 9, 1961. Transportation by bus from New Orleans to Jackson, Mississippi, will be arranged by CORE.

[redacted] inquired as to whether the FBI would give clearance to the freedom riders as CORE did not wish to have a freedom rider who was subversive or had a criminal record. The confidential nature of FBI files was explained to her.

Among the names submitted by [redacted] as having volunteered to engage in the freedom ride was [redacted] female, [redacted] years of age. It was reported in April, 1960, that [redacted] was a member of the Communist Party.

Information has been received that at least five and possibly twelve freedom riders will leave Minneapolis by Greyhound bus on June 8, 1961, en route to Nashville, Tennessee. At Nashville they will be briefed by CORE and then will proceed to Jackson, Mississippi. This group includes several individuals who are connected with the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, one of whom is associated with the Socialist Workers Party.

On June 8, 1961, [redacted] an attorney representing the city of Montgomery, advised that he had been designated by U. S. District Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr., to prepare a third party case against CORE and the other organizations and individuals listed in the temporary injunction against freedom riding in Alabama. [redacted] requested that the FBI conduct investigation to assist him in establishing that the freedom riders have placed an undue burden on interstate commerce. He said that if the FBI cannot conduct this investigation he plans to ask the court to issue an order instructing that the FBI investigate.

U. S. Attorney Hartwell Davis, with whom [] had previously spoken, has advised that he knows of no regulation, obligation or precedent which would require the FBI to conduct such an investigation and he does not feel that the FBI has any responsibility to conduct such an investigation. Mr. Davis had referred [] to the FBI because of the possibility that the FBI might have some authority or obligation with which he was not familiar.

[] request was discussed with Assistant Attorney General Burke Marshall by Mr. Rosen of the FBI. Mr. Marshall expressed the opinion that it was the responsibility of [] to produce whatever evidence he has to support the allegation that freedom riders interfere with interstate commerce. He said that no investigation should be conducted by the FBI but that if [] has any further questions he may contact Mr. Marshall or U. S. Attorney Davis. [] has been so advised.

The Montgomery County Citizens Council held a public rally on the evening of June 9, 1961. The Attorney General was called a traitor by Carl Herbert Lancaster, Chairman of the Council, who said that the Attorney General worked behind the scenes to get Southerners to "accept integration or else."

MacDonald Gallion, Attorney General for the State of Alabama, was the principal speaker at the rally. He read what was purported to be a verbatim transcript of a telephone conversation between the Attorney General and George C. Cruik, Manager of the Greyhound bus station, Birmingham, Alabama, on May 15, 1961. Gallion said that the Attorney General ordered Federal Marshals to invade Alabama against the overwhelming wishes of the citizens and with "wanton disregard for state sovereignty and state laws." He added that this was uncalculated, unnecessary and was "directly political propaganda."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The Attorney General

Collier alleged that various leaders of CORE have records of communist associations.

Collier urged his listeners to stay within the law but to fight to preserve the Southern heritage and he said, "We must not allow ourselves to be drawn into violence."

Dr. Henry Lyons, Senior, Eighteenth Avenue Baptist Church, Montgomery, Alabama, informed the Citizens Council early that Montgomery is a target of Russian communism because Montgomery is a symbol of Southern tradition. Dr. Lyons stated, "Our heritage in the South is sacred and must not be surrendered."

We will continue to receive the Department promptly of pertinent developments.

ASAC J. T. Sylvester of the New Orleans Office has advised that Roy Wilkins, national executive secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), plans to test the facilities at the Jackson airport upon his arrival there this afternoon.

Medgar Evers, field secretary of the NAACP, Jackson, Mississippi, telephonically advised the Jackson Resident Agency that Roy Wilkins would arrive in Jackson at 1:55 p. m., Jackson time, 3:55 p. m., Washington time. Wilkins is to be in Jackson to address a rally of the NAACP at 8 PM tonight at the Negro Masonic Temple Building. Wilkins will be met at the airport by Evers, Dean Charles Jones of Campbell College in Jackson, and [redacted] Tougaloo Southern Christian College. The President of the Mississippi State Conference of the NAACP Aaron E. Henry of Clarksdale, Mississippi, may possibly be with the group.

The group plans to enter the white restaurant known as Cicero's Airport Restaurant and request service. According to Evers they did not desire to use the white rest rooms. He stated that if requested by the police they would move on from the restaurant but would ask the police the reason for such a request being made.

Calls from Meridian, Mississippi

10:25 a.m., EDST:

SA [] furnished information received from the Meridian, Mississippi, Chief of Police, O. A. Hooker, to the effect that General Wilson of the Tennessee National Guard intended to surround the bus station at Meridian.

10:45 a.m., EDST:

General Wilson of the National Guard had left the police department at Meridian in the company of two reporters; one a UPI man and the other is [] from a Jackson newspaper. These two men flew in from Jackson with General Wilson.

11:30 a.m., EDST:

SA [] advised that General Pat Wilson, Mississippi National Guard, had three cars moving into the state line between Mississippi and Alabama with two or more men in each car. These cars are supposed to fall in behind the bus and follow it at a respectable distance so as not to cause undue excitement. The cars were to follow the bus to Meridian city line and there turn it over to the Meridian city police. SA [] advised that the Mississippi Highway Patrol (MHP) under Colonel Birdsong was sending 18 cars to the state line to convoy the bus to Meridian. According to Birdsong the Alabama state militiamen traveling on the bus, which is the first section of the first convoy, are being replaced by Mississippi state militiamen.

1:10 a.m., EDST:

SA [] advised that the National Guard had moved into the crowd around the bus station at Meridian and evacuated all those without bus tickets. The crowd was moved across the street. There was some jeering from the crowd and one boy waved a Confederate flag. No fights resulted.

12:45 p.m., EDST:

SA [] advised that Colonel [] of the Mississippi National Guard was proceeding to the city hall in Meridian to take charge of dispersing the crowd which was estimated to be

SA [] at Meridian, Mississippi furnished the following information:

Dave Gaydon, Chief, Mississippi Highway State Police, reportedly is proceeding to Jackson, Mississippi, to handle the situation and insofar as the Mississippi State Police are concerned.

Colonel Birdsong, Commissioner of Public Safety, is remaining in Meridian to direct the activities of the Highway Patrol in that city.

Cars of the Mississippi State Highway Patrol were stationed at one-mile intervals between Meridian and Jackson, Mississippi. As the bus passes each of these check points a pertinent car will follow the bus until the next check point where it will be replaced by the care from the check point.

[] of Meridian, a lawyer, advised that he had heard from talk that delegations from Neshoba, Kemper and Newton Counties were proceeding to Meridian, Mississippi, to be at the station when the bus arrives. The exact number of the members of the delegations was not known and the information has been furnished to the Meridian PD and the Mississippi Highway Patrol.

The Mississippi Highway Patrol has received information from the State Attorney General's office in Jackson to the effect that [] Jackson, bootlegger, had reportedly stated he had a home made bomb and if he could get close enough would throw it into the bus. [] reportedly claimed that he had an alibi established and witnesses would testify that he had been fishing at Eagles Lake. The State Attorney General's office had advised the source of this information as []

SA [] of Jackson, Mississippi, advised that unverified information had been received from the Jackson PD to the effect that the Alabama Highway Patrol units reportedly had removed all passengers from the first bus carrying freedom riders and had placed them in Mississippi Highway Patrol cars. Jackson PD advised the source of this information as an unidentified news source.

Subsequently SA [] advised that the Jackson PD had stated there was absolutely no foundation for this rumor.

SA [] advised that Governor Ross Barnett is conferring with police officials and the Mayor of Jackson, Mississippi.

SA [] advised that there are three Negro colleges in the Jackson area.

Tougaloo Southern Christian College (Negro) is located Tougaloo, Mississippi, approximately 5 or 6 miles north of Jackson
Campbell College (Negro) which is located in Jackson opposite Jackson State College
Jackson State College (Negro) in Jackson

According to SA [] Tougaloo and Campbell Colleges are private institutions whereas the Jackson State College is a state-supported institution.

W With reference to the possibility that the freedom riders might stay overnight at one of the colleges in the Jackson area, SA [] stated that it would be more likely that the students would stay at either Tougaloo or Campbell Colleges. He based this opinion on the fact that these two colleges are private whereas the Jackson State College is under the control of the State Board of Education.

Frank Stoutamire, Chief of Police, Tallahassee, Florida, has advised that on 5/31/61 James Kynes, Administrative Aide to the Governor of Florida, called a meeting of state and local law enforcement agencies. The meeting was attended by Tallahassee City Manager Arvah Hopkins; all members of the Tallahassee City Commission; Colonel H. N. Kirkman, Director, Florida Highway Patrol; and Chief Stoutamire. Kynes presided.

The purpose of the meeting was to determine the action that would be taken in the event that freedom riders test the transportation facilities at Tallahassee. It was agreed that upon receiving information that freedom riders were at any local terminal the police will proceed immediately, accompanied by at least two deputy sheriffs. If the freedom riders violate state or municipal laws, they will be arrested and quickly removed to the local jail. If an unruly crowd should form, the highway patrol will be called and, if the highway patrol feels that more assistance is imperative, the Governor's Office will be advised and a unit of the Florida National Guard will be called for assistance in maintaining order.

Mayor Joe Cordell, who was ill, and Sheriff Joyce, who was out of town, were invited but did not attend the above meeting.

Chief Stoutamire also advised that on 5/31/61, acting on instructions from company officials in Chicago, the local manager of the Greyhound Bus terminal removed all signs designating white or colored waiting rooms and put up signs which simply read "waiting room." The Trailways Bus terminal, the railroad terminal and the municipal airport still have signs indicating segregated waiting rooms.

This is an addendum to the information received from the Charlottesville, Virginia, Police Department that 43 white students from Altavista, Virginia, High School were headed toward Washington, D. C., in a Trailways bus carrying a sign "Freedom Riders."

SA [redacted] MISC. Washington, Field Office advised that Lieutenant [redacted] Special Investigations Squad, Metropolitan Police Department, has contacted the Trailways bus company. The company confirmed that one of its buses is en route to Washington with 43 seniors from Altavista High School for a week end in Washington with reservations at the Annapolis Hotel. The Annapolis Hotel manager has advised Lieutenant [redacted] that he will not permit the students to stay at his hotel if the sign is still on the bus when it arrives. [redacted] has contacted Captain [redacted] of the Arlington, Virginia, Police Department. [redacted] stated that in view of the possibility of a disturbance being caused by this sign on the bus, he would have his men stop the bus in Arlington and, in a discreet fashion, attempt to have the driver remove the sign if it is a "prank."

[redacted] stated that if [redacted] is not successful, [redacted] will have the bus stopped at the District Line by Metropolitan policemen in a further discreet effort to have this sign taken off the bus.

Any additional information will be furnished as we receive it.

FREEDOM RIDERS- MISC.

At 1:30 a.m. SA  furnished the following information which he obtained from "Jackson Daily News":

An NAACP meeting was held Negro Masonic building, 8:00 p.m. Estimated 1,200 persons in attendance. Featured speaker was Roy Wilkins, Executive Secretary, NAACP, Request for financial contribution and, while it was not announced as to the total, it was quite large and would almost fill two beer cases. This was a contribution for NAACP rather than the freedom riders. MISC.

Some of comments made by  WILKINS:

Said the President, Kennedy, was embarrassed in his exchanges with Mr. Khrushchev because he could not honestly plead for democracy in Laos with Khrushchev looking over his shoulder reading the headlines about Mississippi and Alabama. No mention during meeting of the FBI or Justice Department. He said that the NAACP is starting a voter's registration campaign in seven Mississippi cities now. Not identified. Said if they encountered any violation they would ask Federal authorities to investigate. He referred to John Satterfield of Mississippi (Yazoo City, Mississippi) President Elect, American Bar Association. In an address Satterfield made at Emory University, Atlanta, GA, early May, 1961, Satterfield called for Government under law and Wilkins said all they, presumably Negroes, want under Satterfield is Government under law in Mississippi.

Concerning the freedom riders: Cam

He said that while the NAACP does not agree on minor details of their procedures they have no intention of trying to block them. He said that the National Director of CORE conferred with him prior to these freedom rides. They offered assistance where possible. Wilkins made no mention of his future plans or itinerary. No incidents.  observed four uniformed policemen standing outside the building.

ASAC Howell, Washington Field Office, called to advise that information had been received from the Metropolitan Police Department, informants and the Congress of Racial Equality to the effect that two groups of freedom riders would leave Washington, D. C., via Greyhound bus at 7:45 a.m., 6/13/61. Both buses will reportedly leave at the same time, one group of riders consisting of 16 people will be composed of professional and union people; the second group of 15 or 20, will consist of ministers and rabbis. Each group will have a mixture of Negroes and whites in it. ASAC Howell stated that a press conference was to be held today at 2 p.m. at the Washington Fellowship House, 945 L Street, Northwest, to release plans for these freedom rides to the press.

ASAC Howell stated that the groups plan to spend the night of 6/13/61 at the Payne Hotel, Wilmington, North Carolina. On 6/14/61 the groups plan to stay at private homes in Charleston, South Carolina. On 6/15/61 the riders will be in Jacksonville, Florida; however, it is not known where they plan to spend the night. The groups will complete their journey at St. Petersburg, Florida, on 6/16/61. The members of both groups plan to leave St. Petersburg by plane on 6/16/61, one going to New York City and the other to Newark, New Jersey.

It has been reported that the groups plan to test the various terminal facilities in the states through which they will pass; however, no specific information regarding this has yet been obtained. Information was received on 6/10/61 from a member of the Congress of Racial Equality that two groups would leave Washington by Greyhound bus on 6/13/61, however it was indicated that one of these groups consisting of 18 clergymen would make stops in Raleigh, North Carolina, Sumter, South Carolina, Jacksonville, Florida, and would terminate their trip at Tallahassee, Florida. The proposed itinerary of the other group is similar to that set forth above, terminating in St. Petersburg. am

 At 1:37 a.m. SAC Bromwell, New Orleans, was advised that United Press International ticker, 9:37 p.m., 6/8/61, states three of the freedom riders who arrived in Jackson today requested separate trials and were to be tried later. This does not agree with previous information which indicated that all who arrived today had been convicted. Bromwell was instructed to resolve this issue and call back tonight.

At 2:15 a.m. SA Jackson, advised that the three subjects who arrived by airplane from St. Louis on 6/7/61 were handled separately on 6/8/61 because they were not represented by and did not wish to be represented by counsel. On June 12, 1961, the twelve freedom riders who were arrested at Jackson, Mississippi, on June 10, 1961, and June 11, 1961, were convicted of breach of the peace. Each was sentenced to serve four months in jail and was fined $200. No sentences were suspended.

Sheriff J. Robert Gilfooy, Hinds County, Mississippi, advised that he has been authorized, subject to court approval, to transfer the freedom riders to the State Penitentiary at Parchman, Mississippi. Sheriff Gilfooy stated in confidence that he plans to make this transfer at daybreak on June 14, 1961, or possibly on June 15, 1961.

Sheriff Gilfooy anticipates that in the future he will transfer freedom riders to the State Penitentiary when approximately thirty of them have been collected in the local jails.

U. S. District Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr., Montgomery, Alabama, postponed the hearing for an injunction against freedom rides until July 17, 1961. Judge Johnson advised that the original ten-day restraining order which he issued on June 2, 1961, would expire at midnight on June 12, 1961; however, Attorney [redacted] has filed a motion to continue the restraining order for another ten-day period. Judge Johnson reserved his ruling on this motion for the time being but stated that he might give a ruling at any time.

The Attorney General

We have been informed that a union and professional group of fourteen freedom riders was scheduled to leave Washington, D. C., by Greyhound bus at 7:45 a. m., June 13, 1961. The group has reservations to spend the night of June 13, 1961, at the Payne Hotel in Wilmington, North Carolina. They plan to leave Wilmington on two separate Greyhound buses on June 14, 1961, and will spend the night of June 14, 1961, at Charleston, South Carolina, in private homes.

On June 15, 1961, the above group intends to proceed to Jacksonville, Florida, where they again plan to stay in private homes and will depart from Jacksonville on two separate Greyhound buses on June 16, 1961, arriving in St. Petersburg, Florida, at 12:45 p. m., and 5:10 p. m. Two of the members of this group intend to return to New York by airplane from Tampa and the others plan to fly to New York from St. Petersburg.

Information has also been received to the effect that a group of eighteen ministers and rabbis plans to leave Washington, D. C., by Greyhound bus at 11:55 a. m., June 13, 1961. They intend to spend the night of June 13, 1961, at Shaw University, Raleigh, North Carolina, and will proceed by Greyhound bus on June 14, 1961, to Sumter, South Carolina; Savannah, Georgia; and Jacksonville, Florida, arriving in Jacksonville at 7:45 a. m., June 15, 1961. They allegedly plan to have breakfast at the Jacksonville bus terminal and test the facilities of the bus station. On June 15, 1961, they will proceed to Tallahassee, Florida, where they intend to test the airport facilities before they depart for New York via Eastern Air Lines at 3:25 p. m.

The Jacksonville, Florida, Police Department is following the situation and plans to make no arrests unless there is trouble.

A confidential informant in Miami has advised that J. H. Kestley, President of the Florida States Rights Party, stated that pressure is being brought to bear regarding the freedom riders and that all freedom riders who attempt sit-in in Florida will be arrested. He also said that the Governor and the sheriffs' association have set up plans for handling the arrests and he alleged that the freedom rides are sponsored and financed by CORE, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and communist organizations.

The Attorney General

The "Miami Herald" has reported that Sheriff Thomas Kelly warned integration leaders in Miami that "If any freedom riders come to Dade County they will land in jail."

Sources in Los Angeles, whose reliability has not been determined, have advised that CORE will sponsor a meeting on June 10, 1961, which is to be held in the Los Angeles Sports Arena. Approximately thirty thousand people are expected to attend including Governor Edmund G. Brown and Stanley Mosk, Attorney General for the State of California.

It was stated that the principal speaker will be Martin Luther King.

These sources in Los Angeles have also advised that many Negroes feel that their rights have not been properly protected by the Los Angeles police and are ready to fight if they are molested or threatened by the police or members of the Caucasian race. It is alleged that there is racial friction in the Los Angeles area which is the result of racial conditions in the Southern States and which is compounded by the large number of white people who have moved to Los Angeles from the South.

The Department will be promptly advised of further pertinent developments.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on May 29, 1961, that a Freedom Rally to protest the jailing of the freedom riders and secure protection for the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), would be held at the Mt. Olivet Baptist Church, 120th Street and Lenox Avenue, New York City, on the evening of June 5, 1961. This source advised the sponsors of this rally would be the Social Action Commission of the Empire State Baptist Convention and the New York Division of the SCLC. N.Y.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on June 6, 1961, advised as follows concerning this rally: b7D

The Mt. Olivet Baptist Church was full and contained approximately 1000 persons of whom about 100 were white and the rest Negro. There were about 2000 persons in a crowd outside the church and loud speakers were set up on the street so that those outside could hear the speakers. The crowd was orderly and there were no incidents of violence.

Reverend Ralph Abernathy, SCLC, Montgomery, Alabama, requested that people travel to the south. He said that money alone sent to Alabama and Mississippi without the presence of people from the Northern section of the United States, the fight for total freedom in all states will take much longer to accomplish. N.Y.

Racial Matters

[redacted] President of the African Conference is the person who was shot from a passing car the second day of the rioting in Montgomery. He said many Negroes had been wounded but had refused to report this to the police for fear of hoodlum retaliation. He further stated that he informed the Governor that he was in this fight to stay and taking his life would not stop the movement for freedom.

[redacted] and one of the freedom riders jailed said he was happy to be jailed if this is American justice. He said he informed the warden upon his release to keep his cell unoccupied, because he would be back.

SOUTHERN CHRISTIAN
SCLC, LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE

[redacted] Brooklyn, New York, said that he regretted that he could not comply with the Attorney General's request not to embarrass the President at this time, when he would be talking with the leaders of the world. He stated that he, as a Negro, has been embarrassed since the day he was born.

Reverend Martin L. King cited the many contributions Negroes have rendered America over a period of two hundred years. He said that he was requesting the President to declare segregation unconstitutional and authorize a second Emancipation Proclamation.

The Above information was verified in substance on June 6, 1961, by a [redacted] confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past and who furnished the following information:

At this rally, contribution envelopes were passed out requesting contributions for the SCLC, 208 Auburn Avenue, N. E., Atlanta 3, Georgia. A collection was taken up at this rally to which there appeared to be a big response.

From a point where it was possible to observe and hear proceedings, the following details concerning the trial of 27 "Freedom Riders" were determined. The trial was held beginning at 4:00 PM on May 26, 1961, in the Municipal Court, Jackson, Mississippi. (u)

The trial judge was Judge JAMES E. SPENCER, the prosecuting attorneys were JACK TRAVIS, City Prosecuting Attorney, and ROBERT NICHOLS, Assistant City Prosecuting Attorney. The defendants were represented by the following attorneys: JACK YOUNG, Jackson, Mississippi; JESS BROWN, Vicksburg, Mississippi; WILEY BRANTON, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, and CHARLES R. OLDHAM, St. Louis, Missouri. (u)

The courtroom contained approximately 65 newsmen occupying what is normally the white section of the courtroom, on the west side of the courtroom, whereas the Negro spectators were seated on the left side of the courtroom facing the Judge. There were approximately 15 Negro spectators in attendance with the remaining seats in the Negro section being occupied by the defendants, there not being sufficient space in the area normally occupied by the defendants. (u)

Captain J. L. RAY, Jackson, Mississippi, Police Department, was the first witness. Captain RAY testified that he and the men under his control ordered the defendants to move on twice and when they did not move, they were arrested. RAY was asked by Defense Attorney JACK YOUNG "Where do you want them to go," to which RAY replied "out." RAY was the only witness for the prosecution. (u)

City Prosecuting Attorney JACK TRAVIS advised that proceedings in this case were under Section 2087.5 of the Mississippi Code. (u)

JAMES M. LAWSON, JR., was the first witness for the defense. He stated he was a Methodist minister from Nashville, Tennessee. He stated he bought a ticket from Montgomery, Alabama, to Jackson, Mississippi, and at the time he boarded the bus, he thought that it would make scheduled stops. He advised that the bus was apparently in charge of the National Guard in Alabama and that at the Alabama-Mississippi state line, the National Guard and Highway Patrol, which were around the bus, were changed. He advised the bus made no rest stops from Montgomery, Alabama, to Jackson, Mississippi. LAWSON advised that he reportedly requested rest stops of the bus driver. (u)

LAWSON stated that there was an out-of-order sign hanging at the colored waiting room and he went into the white waiting room. He stated that an officer told him to move on, but did not specify as to where he should go. LAWSON advised he went into the white men's rest room and again was told to move on. (u)

LAWSON admitted that he did not move on, stating "it would have been rather embarrassing to move at that time." LAWSON stated that he was actually placed under arrest in the rest room. He testified he was taken from the rest room to the paddy wagon. (u)

On cross-examination by City Prosecuting Attorney JACK TRAVIS, LAWSON admitted that he had been convicted of violation of the Selective Service Laws, stating that he could not, as a minister, participate and received a sentence of three years. LAWSON, on cross-examination, stated that money for the trip to Jackson, Mississippi, was supplied by the National Non-Violence Movement, the Headquarters for which are located in Nashville, Tennessee. (u)

LAWSON testified that as a christian and a minister, he felt that a sad state of affairs had arisen when a person could not travel without the necessity of calling out the National Guard. He stated he was trying to make certain the country was democratic as to all persons. He advised the reason he made the trip to Jackson was a "private call from God" and that he had endeavored to anticipate all possibilities and alternatives and realized that arrest on arrival in Jackson, Mississippi, was one of the possibilities in his travels. He advised he was on the first bus to arrive in Jackson, Mississippi, and said that on the trip from Montgomery, Alabama, to Jackson, Mississippi, he had asked the Colonel, whose name he believed was MONTGOMERY, who was in charge of the bus, to make a rest stop. He stated that the Colonel would not allow the bus to stop. VIVIAN stated he repeated the request and the Colonel in charge of the bus told him to go to the back of the bus that there were windows there and VIVIAN testified that there were no rest rooms in the back of the bus. (u)

VIVIAN testified that on arrival in Jackson, Mississippi, he was one of the last to get off. He stated he observed an "out of order" sign on the colored waiting room and followed other passengers who got off the bus to the white waiting room. He testified he went through to the rest room and when he started out of the rest room, two officers stopped him. He stated he saw his companions being placed under arrest and went up to one of the officers and told him that he was with the same group and said "I am with the group, if you arrest them why do you not arrest me?" VIVIAN testified that the officer "shame facedly" asked him his name and placed him under arrest. VIVIAN testified he was never ordered to move on by a police officer. (u)

VIVIAN testified he was a member of the National Non-Violence Movement and denied that he was a member of CORE. (u)

VIVIAN testified that the purpose of the trip was to test to determine whether or not the laws of the United States and the rulings of the ICC were being followed. He stated he testified he felt citizens should be able to travel freely where ever they so desired. (u)

JAMES L. FARMER was the next witness and testified he resides in New York City and is the National Director of CORE, which position is a paid position. He testified he arrived in Jackson, Mississippi, on the second bus, having left Montgomery, Alabama, about 11:30 AM on May 24, 1961, and arrived in Jackson, Mississippi, at approximately 4:45 PM. He testified there was no rest room on the bus. FARMER stated that the first rest stop made on the trip from Montgomery, Alabama, to Jackson, Mississippi, was over some five to ten minutes duration after crossing the Alabama-Mississippi line and inside Mississippi. He stated the stop was made at a tavern on the road side which he did not believe was a regularly scheduled bus stop. He stated that judging from the signs on the outside of the tavern, he felt that beer was sold in this tavern but no food was available. (u)

FARMER testified that troopers were changed on the bus and the bus was in the command of the National Guard. He stated that there were no other passengers on the bus other than other defendants, with the exception of members of the National Guard and some reporters. (u)

FARMER testified that on arrival in Jackson, Mississippi, he left the bus and observed numerous news-paper reporters, photographers, and police officers who were lining the passage way. FARMER stated he went to the white waiting room and went to the men's rest room. He stated that when he got to the rest room, he was about eight or ten feet behind a group of three other companions. He stated that he heard a police officer ask one of the group in front of him who the spokesman for the group was. FARMER stated he heard the police officer tell them that they would have to leave. FARMER stated no answer was given the police officer. He stated the officer took their names and asked him if he was with them. He stated he told him he was and was told to follow and was taken to a "paddy wagon" in front of the bus station and taken to jail. (u)

FARMER testified he saw no disturbance, violence or evidence of unrest. He testified that he received no threats and had been treated "very well." (u)

In reply to a question as to the purpose of his trip, he stated it was because of his belief in America and the laws of the Supreme Court. FARMER testified he wanted to find out what Negroes traveling could expect to encounter. He testified he wanted to see to what extent there was compliance with ICC rules and the decisions of the Supreme Court. (u)

FARMER testified he was formerly Program Director for the NAACP in 1959-60. (u)

After a fifteen-minute recess Judge JAMES L. SPENCER advised that each side would be allotted fifteen minutes for arguments. Assistant Prosecuting Attorney NICHOLS spoke first and said that the prosecution was relying upon Section 2087.5 of the Mississippi Code, which he read almost intoto. He stated that three elements must be present under the law to constitute a violation under the affidavit by which defendants were charged. These were (1) there must be a crowd which must consist of more than one person (2) it must take place in a public place, and (3) there must be a failure to obey an order of a police officer combined with the intention to breach the peace. (u)

Attorney JACK YOUNG then commenced his argument and based his argument on the proposition of entrapment. He stated that the arrest was a preconceived idea from the time defendants left Montgomery; that the plan for their arrest actually was initiated prior to the time that they left Montgomery and continued up until their arrest in Jackson, Mississippi. He stated that the defendants were actually under arrest on the bus because the bus was under the control of the National Guard. (u)

YOUNG argued that no overt action had been committed and suggested that the statutes under which proceedings were taking place were unconstitutional. (u)

WILEY BRANTON, Attorney, also argued this case and based his arguments on the decisions of the Supreme Court of the United States. (u)

City Attorney JACK TRAVIS closed for the prosecution and in termination of his comments asked the Judge to sentence each of the defendants to a fine of $200.00 and sixty days in jail with the jail sentence to be suspended. (u)

At the conclusion of the arguments by the Counsel Judge

SPENCER addressed the defendants and the courtroom. SPENCER advised that insofar as the statute under which the proceedings were taking place, he felt that the statute is constitutional and is a valid exercise of police power. He pointed out that all states have similar statutes relating to or designed to handle breaches of the peace. He stated that the question before the court was as to whether or not the law was properly applied and as to whether or not the use of this statute is constitutional. (u)

Judge SPENCER stated that he would take judicial notice of what had occurred in a sister state. He stated "We are not here today trying any segregation laws and not trying to determine the rights of the defendants to ride a bus or where they are to sit or whether they can eat where ever they want too." (u)

Judge SPENCER stated that if the defendants desire to challenge the laws of Mississippi, they have certain legal procedures to undertake in this regard. He stated that if any persons wish to challenge the laws and customs of the state, they have a proper, orderly and legal procedure in the courts of this country for doing so. He continued that the defendants choose to take the law into their own hands. He stated the defendants were open and flagrant in their defiance of the laws and their announced intentions were to violate the law and for the purpose of inflaming the populous. He stated the defendants had made exciting and inflammatory press releases and that their purpose in traveling was to inflame. (u)

SPENCER stated "even the Attorney General of the United States was so convinced their action would lead to violence that he sent 700 Federal officers to follow in the wake and trail of their travels." SPENCER stated that he was not going to let any judicial decisions be made in this manner. He stated it seemed that the defendants were attempting to inflame the people to let them fight it out among themselves. (u)

SPENCER stated that no state allows judicial decisions to be solved by violence. He stated that their conduct has already led to violence which was their announced purpose. He stated that accordingly he found the defendants guilty of the charge and sentenced each of them the $200.00 and sixty days in jail with the service of the jail sentence to be suspended.

Mr. J. R. GILFOY, Sheriff, Hinds County, Jackson, Mississippi, telephonically contacted the Jackson Resident Agency. He said the "Freedom Riders" who were in jail were "raising hell." He said he meant by this that they were chanting and being very noisy. As an example, he said they were "counting off," meaning they would count 1, 2, 3, 4, etc., and would not cease making noise when instructed to do so by the jailer. (u)

GILFOY said that about 9:00 AM, May 27, 1961, he ordered four of the Freedom Riders, including the "leader," whose name he does not know, to be placed together in a solitary confinement cell, which the Sheriff referred to as a "hot box." He said he released them from the solitary confinement cell in about ten minutes. He said when released they told him he would have to put them back in solitary as they were not going to behave themselves. (u)

ARRIVAL JACKSON AND ARRESTS

Date 5/29/61

At 1:00 PM, May 28, 1961, I entered the white waiting room of the Trailways Bus Depot on East Pascagoula Street in Jackson, Mississippi. En route to the depot and while crossing East Pascagoula Street at South Lamar Street, I observed Captain [redacted] and another uniformed officer of the Jackson Police Department directing traffic at this intersection, which is directly in front of the depot.

In front of the entrance to the depot were four uniformed officers of the Jackson Police Department and two uniformed Deputy Sheriffs of the Hinds County Sheriff's Office in Jackson. The patrol wagon of the Jackson Police Department was parked in the driveway in front of the depot where passengers enter and leave automobiles and cabs. I observed four marked police cars of the Jackson Police Department on the outside of the station. Upon entering the depot, I noted many individuals who appeared to be photographers and newsmen and also noted that a number of other individuals on the rear platform of the depot where the buses unload and take on passengers who also appeared to be newsmen.

At 1:15 PM, I observed Captain [redacted] of the Jackson Police Department in the depot, and also noted Assistant Chief of Police M. B. PIERCE. Detective Captain [redacted] and Detective Captain [redacted] were inside the white waiting room. I also observed two detectives of the Jackson Police Department in the white waiting room as well as on the platform on the rear of the depot. Observations during this period included noting that two uniformed officers of the Jackson Police Department were stationed in the colored waiting room of the depot. During this time which was prior to the arrival of Trailways Bus 5141 from Montgomery, Alabama, DAVE GAYDEN, Chief of Patrol, Mississippi Highway Patrol, Jackson, Mississippi, was in front of the depot as was [redacted] Assistant Director, Identification Bureau, Mississippi Highway Patrol. Inside the depot, I noticed [redacted] Investigator, Auto Theft Bureau, Mississippi Highway Patrol.

There were no signs restricting the movement of anyone or designed to restrict or direct any movement on the doors of the depot. An entrance door in both the white and colored waiting rooms at the rear of the waiting rooms did not operate, but no sign was on it. On the platform at the rear of the depot, I noted reporters [redacted] of the Memphis Commercial Appeal, and [redacted] of the New Orleans Times-Picayune, along with [redacted] photographer for the Jackson Daily News, and [redacted] reporter for the Jackson Daily News, Jackson, Mississippi.

At 1:31 PM, Trailways Bus 5141 pulled into the loading platform at the rear of the depot and the passengers got off. A group of passengers, including a group of Negro males and one Negro female, together with several white people walked toward and entered the white waiting room after passing the colored waiting room. One of the Negro males started toward the restaurant of the white waiting room trailed by a group of other Negroes. This person was approached by Captain [redacted] and Captain [redacted] announced to the group that they would have to move on out, repeating this statement three times. The Negro male in the lead and the others in the group ignored Captain [redacted] orders and Captain [redacted] announced that they were under arrest. This occurred at 1:35 PM. All persons in this group arrested were moved to the patrol wagon of the Jackson Police Department, placed inside, and at 1:39 PM the wagon departed the depot heading in the direction of the Jackson City Jail. Five Negro males, one Negro female and two white males were loaded in the wagon. At the time of the arrests inside the white waiting room, there were about 15 other persons who appeared to be travelers.

City Attorney JACK TRAVIS was observed in the white waiting room during this time and Sheriff J. R. GILFOY, Hinds County, and [redacted] Hinds County Deputy and Constable, Jackson, Mississippi, were with Sheriff GILFOY.

The arrests were made without incident and only one of the arrested individuals was observed to be "frisked" by officers.

NO 157-278

During the observations inside the depot during this time, Assistant Chief PIERCE was heard to inform a newspaperman that no extra men had been called out for this occasion. No police dogs were observed in the area.

Date 5/28/61

The following observations were made by the below named Special Agent at the Trailways Bus Station, White Waiting Room, Pascagoula Street, Jackson, Mississippi, on May 28, 1961:

b6

At approximately 1:33 PM, above date, a Negro woman and a Negro man entered the white waiting room followed by Captain [] of the Jackson Police Department. Three additional Negroes followed. All used the far southeast door of the waiting room. A white woman and a white man then entered the waiting room. They formed a group in the approximate center of the waiting room, opposite the ticket counters.

This group was questioned by Captain [] of the Jackson Police Department, briefly, who ordered the group in a clear voice to move on. This group moved slowly in a direction toward the restaurant in the waiting room. The white woman was not observed in the group at that time. The group was stopped near the entrance of the restaurant by two uniformed policemen. At that time, the group was placed under arrest and was told by Captain [] to move back.

At that time, it was estimated that 50 or 60 people had formed in the waiting room, composed of uniformed and plain-clothes police numbering about one dozen total, passengers, Freedom Riders and members of the press.

At that time, it was observed that one Negro, near the seats in the approximate center of the waiting room, was being frisked by a uniformed Jackson policeman. This Negro was then escorted from the waiting room to Pascagoula Street.

At that time, other Negroes were being escorted by police from the waiting room. At that time it was 1:34 PM. By 1:35 PM, all the Riders had left the Terminal Building.

No force or violence were observed. Police handcuffs were not used. Uniformed police were armed only with service revolvers and, although two policemen were observed with billy clubs, the clubs were attached to their belts, and not in their hands.

The following observations were made at the Trailways Bus Depot, 201 East Pascagoula Street, Jackson, Mississippi:

At about 1:15 PM, it was noted that there were two uniformed Jackson policemen in front of the depot, as well as the Jackson Police Patrol Wagon and its driver. There were also three uniformed policemen across the street and two in each direction east and west of the depot about 100 yards in either direction. There were no police dogs in evidence anywhere in the vicinity. Trailways Bus #5141 arrived at the depot at 1:31 PM. At 1:34 PM, the first persons arrested came out of the front of the depot. It appeared that there were three white males and three Negro males and one Negro female arrested, for a total of seven persons arrested. The police patrol wagon left the depot at 1:39 PM. At 1:43 PM, the entire area around the depot was clear of photographers and newsmen, but a few plain-clothes policemen were still on the scene.

Assistant Chief of Police M. B. PIERCE, Jackson Police Department, advised that following the arrest of the eight Freedom Riders at 1:45 PM, on May 28, 1961, at the Continental Trailways Bus Station, these individuals were asked if they had eaten lunch. He said that they informed they had not eaten since having breakfast at Montgomery, Alabama, on the morning of May 28, 1961. Mr. PIERCE advised that in view of this he instructed the cook at the Jackson City Jail to prepare lunch for these individuals immediately upon their arrival at the jail, although the lunch period had ended prior to the arrest of these individuals.

Mr. PIERCE advised these eight individuals were asked if they desired to make any local or long distance telephone calls following their arrest and [redacted] stated that she desired to place a call to Nashville, Tennessee. Mr. PIERCE advised [redacted] was permitted to make her call to Nashville before she was booked at the Jackson City Jail and further advised when asked if she desired to telephone a lawyer she replied that she did not desire to call anyone at Jackson as "Nashville would take care of everything."

Mr. PIERCE advised [redacted] informed him that one unidentified Negro male, whose name she does not know, but who was supposedly a part of the group of Freedom Riders, voluntarily left the Trailways Bus containing the above eight individuals at an unrecalled small town after the bus left Montgomery but before the bus arrived at the Mississippi Line without giving any explanation for this action. She advised he left the bus alone, according to Mr. PIERCE.

Mr. PIERCE stated [redacted] told him [redacted] of this group of riders and that they were not members of CORE but were members of the Student Non-Violence Committee, Nashville, Tennessee, which she said is associated with the National Action Committee, Atlanta, Ga.

Chief PIERCE advised that one male, Negro, who was later identified as being [redacted] of New York, N. Y., was observed to depart from the above bus at Jackson, Mississippi, and to walk immediately into the Negro waiting room of the Continental Trailways Station where he purchased a bus ticket to New York, N. Y. Mr. PIERCE advised [redacted] was not arrested or questioned by officers of the Jackson Police Department since he did not break any laws at Jackson. 210

Chief PIERCE advised the trial of the above individuals and the group of Freedom Riders who preceded this group into Jackson on May 28, 1961, will be held at 3:00 PM, May 29, 1961.

Assistant Chief of Police M. B. PIERCE, Jackson Police Department, advised that with reference to the incident of the search of one of the Freedom Riders on their arrest at the bus station, this was done by a young rookie officer, who apparently had misunderstood previous orders not to frisk these prisoners at the bus station.

Chief PIERCE also advised that the trial was scheduled to be held on May 29, 1961, in order to accommodate out-of-town reporters and he noted that no court could be held on May 28, 1961, inasmuch as this was a Sunday.

Mr. PIERCE advised the trial began at 3:00 PM and ended 3:17 PM. Mr. PIERCE advised the only witness for the prosecution was Captain J. L. RAY, Jackson Police Department, who testified to the circumstances surrounding the arrest of these individuals at Jackson, Mississippi.

Mr. PIERCE advised the defense did not call any witness. He advised that following their conviction Attorney JACK YOUNG told members of the press that defendants were not going to appeal their conviction at the present time and were not going to pay their fines at this time. He advised the defendants were returned to the Jackson City Jail following the trial and will be transferred to the Hinds County Jail, Jackson, Mississippi, May 30, 1961.

Mr. PIERCE advised no one was barred from the courtroom during the above trial; however, he noted that his department had previously notified the public through the local press that reporters would have a priority in gaining admission to the trial. He advised he would estimate that there were approximately twelve to fifteen reporters, including two Negro reporters, present during the above trial together with five or six white spectators, and ten to twelve Negro spectators. He advised he observed MEDGAR EVERS, Field Secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Jackson, Mississippi, present in the courtroom during this trial. Mr. PIERCE advised there were several vacant seats in the courtroom and he would estimate that altogether there were about three vacant rows of seats in the courtroom.

Mr. PIERCE advised that Lieutenant RAY testified that he had arrested these individuals because they had refused to move on when ordered to do so. Mr. PIERCE said JACK YOUNG asked RAY, while RAY was testifying on cross-examination, if he (RAY) had arrested these individuals because they were Negroes in a white waiting room and Lt. RAY had replied that he would have arrested them in the Negro rest room if he had ordered them to move on and they had refused this order.

Mr. PIERCE could furnish no further information regarding the above trial.

"2. The provisions of this act are supplementary to the provisions of any other statute of this state.

"3. If any paragraph, sentence, or clause of this act shall be held to be unconstitutional or invalid, the same shall not affect any other part, portion or provision of this act, but such other part shall remain in full force and effect."

During the trial on May 29, 1961, FBI Agents in the vicinity of City Court Building during the trial of these prisoners observed that there were 25-30 Jackson Police Officers on duty in front of the court building. Uniformed policemen were also spaced about every 50 feet along the street across from the building on three sides of the building. It was observed that traffic was allowed to continue in a normal fashion; that no crowds or even small groups formed in the area, and no incidents of any nature occurred during the period of this trial.

Date 5/31/61

Assistant Chief of Police M. B. PIERCE, Jackson Police Department, advised that this group of prisoners convicted on May 29, 1961, were transferred from the City Jail to the Hinds County Jail by walking them across the street with three detectives guarding them. He stated that no newspapermen, cameramen, or spectators were present during this transfer. He further advised that this group did not include the two white male prisoners, [REDACTED] inasmuch as Sheriff J. ROBERT GILFOY had requested they be held in the City Jail marked, "Hold for Sheriff," as the Sheriff has no space for white prisoners at present.

FREEDOM RIDERS - MISC.

Information has been previously received that Governor Patterson of Alabama had instructed Floyd Mann, Director of Public Safety, that his department was to have no further working relationship with the FBI. Mann was also told that they were to furnish no information to the FBI and are to accept no information from the FBI.

With regard to these instructions on the part of Governor Patterson to Floyd Mann, it would appear that the Bureau should continue to make information available to the Alabama Highway Patrol in those instances where the Highway Patrol would have a definite interest, such as information concerning freedom riders entering the state and going to a particular city. By passing on this information the Bureau is in a position to show that we have fulfilled our responsibilities.

RECOMMENDATION:

If this action is approved, the Mobile and Birmingham Offices will be instructed to make certain that any matters coming to the attention of the Bureau that are of interest to the Highway Patrol continue to be passed on and an appropriate record made of the action taken.

FREEDOM RIDE 1961

RACIAL MATTERS; DESTRUCTION OF
AIRCRAFT OR MOTOR VEHICLES; CIVIL RIGHTS

The so-called union and professional group of freedom riders left Washington, D. C., by Greyhound bus as scheduled on June 13, 1961, and spent the night at Wilmington, North Carolina. They plan to continue toward their final destination of St. Petersburg, Florida, on June 14, 1961, and will leave Wilmington in two Greyhound buses for Jacksonville, Florida. Information previously received indicated that they intended to spend the night of June 14, 1961, at Charleston, South Carolina.

It has been stated that as the above group travels it will continuously split into smaller units so that if one unit is arrested the others can continue the journey.

The group of rabbis and ministers also left Washington, D. C., on June 13, 1961, by Greyhound bus and spent the night with faculty members of Shaw University at Raleigh, North Carolina. It is understood that the group now consists of three newspapermen and thirteen rabbis and ministers. They also plan to continue their trip by Greyhound bus on June 14, 1961, leaving the facilities at Sumter, South Carolina, and then proceeding to Tallahassee, Florida, via Jacksonville, Florida. They intend to travel from Tallahassee to New York by airplane on the afternoon of June 15, 1961.

EX 101

[redacted] who is with the union and professional group, informed the FBI office at Charlotte on the evening of June 13, 1961, that he had heard rumors indicating there would be trouble at Wilmington. The North Carolina Highway Patrol had forty men in readiness on the outskirts of Wilmington and [redacted] the number to fifteen. There were no incidents in connection with the travel of either the union and professional group or the rabbis and ministers.

The freedom riders who were scheduled to leave Chicago, Illinois, for Nashville, Tennessee, on June 13, 1961, are reported to have postponed their trip until June 16, 1961. Plans concerning a contemplated freedom ride by train from the St. Louis area to Jackson, Mississippi, on June 17, 1961, are to be discussed at a Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) meeting on June 14, 1961.

On June 13, 1961, we were informed by the Student Central Committee, Nashville, Tennessee, that [redacted] contacted the committee on May 21, 1961. [redacted] allegedly said he was a shoeshine boy in the Trailways bus station at Birmingham, Alabama, on May 14, 1961. He claimed that police officers changed into civilian clothing and attacked the freedom riders. They then followed [redacted] to his home and beat him, breaking his arm. The committee gave [redacted] twenty dollars for transportation to Detroit, Michigan.

We are attempting to locate [redacted] for immediate interview and the details of his story will be promptly and thoroughly checked out.

Further developments will be brought to the attention of the Department promptly.

FREEDOM RIDERS
RACIAL MATTERS

DECLASSIFICATION AUTHORITY DERIVED FROM:
FBI AUTOMATIC DECLASSIFICATION GUIDE
DATE 08-12-2009

The "Chicago Daily Tribune", a daily Chicago, Illinois newspaper dated June 2, 1961, carried an article, part one, page seven, columns four, five and six, captioned "Riders' Here, Tell July 4 Goal".

A review of this article is as follows:

"Seven 'freedom riders' who participated in stormy integration efforts in Alabama and Mississippi stated their goal yeaterday as 'real independence for the south by July 4.'"

The seven persons met in a hall at 322 East 43rd Street, Chicago, Illinois on June 1, 1961 following their arrival from New Orleans and consisted of five Negroes and two white persons.

The seven persons were identified as

Julia Aaron

Dr. Walter Bergman, a white retired professor at Wayne State University, Detroit, Michigan

Mrs. Walter Bergman

David Dennis

Isaac Reynolds, a Negro university student from Detroit, Michigan

Jerome Smith

Sterling Stuckey.

ENCLOSURE

CG 157-81

RE: FREEDOM RIDERS

It is noted the article identifies eight persons but refers to them as seven.

Dr. Bergman, "principal spokesman" said the tempo of the bus rides will be increased week by week and that "Our target is July 4. By then we want real independence for the south. We intend to celebrate a successful campaign on July 4. We will ride, ride, ride. Students don't want to wait on court decisions."

"The seven will be in the Chicago area thru June 8, appearing at colleges, churches, and on television. An 'All-Chicago' rally will be held Monday at 8 p.m. at 32 W. Randolph St."

By memorandum dated June 2, 1961, at Chicago, Illinois, captioned "Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights, Internal Security - C," information pertaining to the rally to be held on Monday night at 8:00 p.m. at 32 West Randolph Street was set forth.

A source advised in July, 1952, that one Walter Bergman, not further identified, in March, 1941, was a "left-wing labor leader in Detroit, Michigan."

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND THE BILL OF RIGHTS

The Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR), maintains headquarters in Room 811, 189 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A source advised in July, 1960, that key leaders of the Communist Party (CP) met with RICHARD CRILEY, the then Executive Secretary of the Chicago Committee to Defend Democratic Rights (CCDDR), and a member of the Civil Liberties Commission, CP of Illinois. At this meeting, CRILEY indicated that the climate in the United States on civil liberties and civil rights issues had changed to the extent that it was now possible to proceed to form an organization with broader mass support than the present CCDDR. By so doing, CRILEY believed that people who would not associate themselves with the CCDDR because of the narrow scope of the purposes of this organization, that is, defense of Smith Act victims, Taft-Hartley victims, etc., would join a Civil Liberties and Civil Rights organization built around a broader issue, such as the Abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). The CP leaders, after receiving assurance from CRILEY that any new organization that might evolve would protect the Party interests in the same manner as the old CCDDR, authorized CRILEY to proceed with his plan to form a broader organization than the CCDDR.

A [] source advised on October 31, 1960, that a new organization known as the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights was formally launched in Chicago at a meeting on October 26, 1960. The stated primary purpose of the new organization was to seek the abolition of the HCUA, and RICHARD CRILEY was named as its Executive Secretary, after having been the guiding force in arranging the October 26, 1960 meeting.

The [] source, in October, 1960, advised that CRILEY again attended a meeting of Illinois District CP leadership on October 28, 1960, at which time he reported on the organizational meeting of the CCDBR. CRILEY stated that the immediate purpose of his organization is to obtain mass support to abolish the HCUA, but the new Committee purposes will also include defense of Smith Act and Taft-Hartley victims. He said there will be no formal affiliation with any national organization of similar purpose; however, the CCDBR, according to CRILEY, will consult and have liaison with national organizations having the same purpose. According to the source, the CP leadership agreed with the general direction of the CCDBR as outlined by CRILEY.

The [] source advised on February 8, 1961, that the CCDBR continues to adhere to the same aims and purposes and operates under the same leadership.

The CP, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND DEMOCRATIC RIGHTS, Formerly known as Chicago Joint Defense Committee to Defeat the Smith Act

b7D

A source advised on April 15, 1958, that the Chicago Joint Defense Committee to Defeat the Smith Act (CJDC) was formed by the Communist Party (CP) in March, 1956.

A [] source advised on July 17, 1958, that at a working conference of the CJDC held on June 8, 1958, at Chicago, Illinois, the name of the CJDC was changed to the Chicago Committee to Defend Democratic Rights (CCDDR). The purpose of the CCDDR, according to its "Statement of Principles and Organization" was to "...defend and extend the human rights embodied in the Bill of Rights....and to put an end to the political and racial persecutions which threaten American democracy today."

The [] source further advised on May 18, 1960, that as of May, 1960, the CCDDR continued to function within the framework of its stated principles and that in accordance with its "Statement of Principles and Organization" had a number of "Working Committees" which included the Chicago Smith Act Families Committee, South Side Freedom Committee, and Taft-Hartley Working Committee. The source further stated that as of May, 1960, RICHARD CRILEY was serving as the Executive Secretary of the CCDDR.

This same source advised on February 8, 1961, that the CCDDR continued to operate until October 26, 1960 when the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR) was formed and the offices and assets of what was formerly the CCDDR were taken over by the CCDBR. At the October 26, 1960 meeting, a referendum for approval of the above described action was called for, and subsequently, votes were solicited from "associates" of the old CCDDR. The source further advised that no formal dissolution meeting of the CCDDR was ever held, but for all intents and purposes the CCDDR ceased to exist on October 26, 1960, and the new CCDBR has functioned under the guidance of RICHARD CRILEY, its Executive Secretary, since that time.

RICHARD CRILEY, according to a [] source, was a member of the State Committee, CP of Illinois, as of February, 1961.

The CP, USA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

Re: FREEDOM BUS RIDERS
CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY

Miss Hughes stated the purpose of the trip is (1) to end discrimination where it presently exists, (2) to encourage people to use interstate facilities in a nonsegregation fashion where no discrimination exists, and (3) to assist people in local communities to take local action through the moral support of CORE.

Miss Hughes furnished the arrival and departure times to news reporters, but asked that these times not be reported in an effort to help avoid any mob action. She was asked if authorities were advised, and Miss Hughes stated the FBI in New York was advised by CORE Headquarters. Miss Hughes also stated the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D. C., was also advised of the riders at that agency's request.

A reporter inquired of Marvin Rich, a member of CORE, if the Attorney General had been advised. He answered that he had not been directly informed, but that the Department of Justice, through the FBI, had been advised, and "Mr. Kennedy knows that we are continuously sponsoring such rides." Mr. Rich was also asked if Federal officers would be on any of the buses, and he replied, "I think that might be a possibility."

The Washington Chapter, CORE, held a mass rally for "Original Freedom Riders" at 7 p.m., June 11, 1961, at the All Souls Unitarian Church, 16th and Harvard Streets, Northwest, Washington, D.C.

A source advised that James B. Carey, President, International Union of Electrical Radio and Machine Workers, AFL - CIO, was one of the three scheduled speakers. According to the source, Carey was extremely critical of the South in his talk and stated that the electrical workers union had earmarked funds for the "freedom riders" and would continue to finance this project. He also criticized the National Association of Manufacturers and "big business who have never helped to bring about equality." D.C.

FREEDOM BUS RIDERS
CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY

D.C.
James Baldwin, Author, told those present, according to the source, that the West had better re-evaluate its international policy in light of the potential strength of the new Afro-Asian countries. He added that the white man had better realize the emerging strength of the Negro. He stated that he did not want to be in the shoes of the white man when the African nations become stronger.

D.C.
The third scheduled speaker, Victor Reuther, President, D. C. Chapter, Americans for Democratic Action, was not present, but he sent a telegram of best wishes to the CORE.

D.C.
Marvin Rich, National Director of CORE, stated that 50 more people will depart this week on freedom rides and Joseph L. Rauh, Jr., Vice Chairman, Americans for Democratic Action, made an appeal for funds. Mr. Rauh stated that it costs at least $10,000 a week to keep the freedom rides going and that CORE spent $23,000 in this cause the previous week.

LA
ALA Three of the original freedom riders spoke. D.C. David Dennis of New Orleans said he was "an angry youth" and Miss Genevieve Hughes described the attack made on the bus and stated "we were expecting trouble in Anniston." The third freedom rider was introduced as Mr. Peck. According to the source, Peck was critical of Senator Eastland of Mississippi, and stated that he would refuse to answer before Congressional committees whether he was a communist agitator. He added that he would tell the audience, however, that he hated totalitarianism and was a pacifist. Peck stated he would refuse to speak before a Congressional committee because the committee had no right to question his efforts to further integration.

FREEDOM RIDERS - BUS.

#428602

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

A group of 14 freedom riders described as union and professional people was scheduled to leave Washington, D. C., by Greyhound bus at 7:45 a. m., 6/13/61. They plan to stay overnight at Wilmington, North Carolina; Charleston, South Carolina; and Jacksonville, Florida; proceeding by bus to St. Petersburg, Florida, 6/16/61.

A group of 18 ministers and rabbis plans to leave Washington, D. C. by Greyhound bus at 11:55 a. m., 6/13/61 staying overnight at Raleigh, North Carolina, passing through Jacksonville, Florida, and arriving at Tallahassee, Florida, 6/15/61, where they will test the airport facilities.

The above groups have reportedly retained attorneys and requested protection from local authorities in North Carolina.

It has been reported that the group of ministers and rabbis will eat breakfast at the bus terminal in Jacksonville, Florida, 6/15/61 and will test the facilities of the bus station. Jacksonville Police plan to make no arrests unless there is trouble.

Los Angeles sources state the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) will sponsor a meeting in the Los Angeles Sports Arena 6/18/61. Approximately 30,000 will attend including Governor Edmund G. Brown and California Attorney General Stanley Mosk. The principal speaker will be Martin Luther King. Los Angeles sources state Negroes feel their rights have not been protected by Los Angeles Police and are threatening to fight if they are molested or threatened by police or Caucasians. Racial friction allegedly exists as a result of racial conditions in the South and the number of white people from the South who are in Los Angeles.

A memorandum is being prepared for the Attorney General.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

DETAILS

The six freedom riders arrested at Jackson 6/10/61 and the six freedom riders arrested at Jackson 6/11/61 were convicted of breach of the peace in Jackson Municipal Court 6/12/61. Each was sentenced to serve four months in jail and fined $200. No sentences were suspended.

Since 5/24/61, 110 freedom riders have been arrested at Jackson, Mississippi. Twenty-two have been released on bond, four have been released upon payment of fines and 84 remain in custody. Eight freedom riders in custody at the city jail are refusing to eat.

Sheriff J. Robert Gilfoy, Hinds County, Mississippi, advised that the County Board of Supervisors on 6/12/61 authorized the sheriff to transfer freedom riders from the Hinds County Jail and the Jackson City Jail to the Mississippi State Penitentiary at Parchman, Mississippi. This may be done as the sheriff deems it necessary to relieve the crowded condition of the jails. Such transfers are to be made upon the approval of the Circuit Court of the First Judiciary District of Hinds County and Hinds County authorities will supervise the freedom riders while they are at the State Penitentiary.

Sheriff Gilfoy advised that he is going to Parchman 6/13/61 to perfect final arrangements for the transfer and he intends to move all of the freedom riders at daybreak on 6/14/61 or 6/15/61. The transfer will be made by Hinds County Prison vans and will probably take place on 6/14/61. This information was furnished in confidence as the sheriff wishes to avoid any publicity concerning the transfer of prisoners.

The freedom riders will initially be housed in the maximum security section at the State Penitentiary and will be separated from the regular prisoners. A first offender camp is being prepared and will probably be completed next week. The freedom riders will be moved to this camp when it is completed. Sheriff Gilfoy does not intend to assign the freedom riders to work details at the present time.

If future freedom riders are sentenced to jail at Jackson, Mississippi, Sheriff Gilfoy intends to wait until about 30 have collected in jail and he will then move them to the State Penitentiary in one prison van.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

U. S. District Judge Frank M. Johnson, Jr., Montgomery, Alabama, on 6/12/61 postponed until 7/17/61 the hearing for a permanent injunction against freedom riders in Alabama.

Judge Johnson advised that the original ten-day restraining order which he issued 6/2/61 would expire at midnight 6/12/61; however, Attorney [redacted] has filed a motion to continue the restraining order for another ten-day period. Judge Johnson reserved ruling on this motion for the time being but stated that he might give a ruling at anytime.

[redacted] CORE, Chicago, advised on 6/12/61 that a group of freedom riders plans to leave Chicago 6/13/61 for Nashville, Tennessee, where CORE will arrange for travel to Jackson, Mississippi, by bus. [redacted] stated that she will furnish the identities of these freedom riders on 6/13/61.

Lieutenant [redacted] has been informed by [redacted] that two groups of freedom riders would depart from Washington, D. C., 6/13/61.

The first group, consisting of 14 freedom riders, has been described as a union and professional group. It was scheduled to leave Washington, D. C., by Greyhound bus at 7:45 a. m., 6/13/61 arriving at Wilmington, North Carolina, on the evening of 6/13/61. The group has reservations in Wilmington at the Payne Hotel and is scheduled to leave Wilmington in two groups by Greyhound bus on 6/14/61. They will arrive at Charleston, South Carolina, at 12:00 p. m. and 5:00 p. m. on 6/14/61 and plan to spend the night in private homes. On 6/15/61 they will proceed to Jacksonville, Florida, arriving at 12:35 p. m. and 4:35 p. m., 6/15/61. They will again stay in private homes and on 6/16/61 part of the group will leave Jacksonville by Greyhound bus at 6:00 a. m. and the remainder of the group will leave by Greyhound bus at 7:30 a. m. The bus which departs from Jacksonville at 6:00 a. m. will arrive at St. Petersburg, Florida, at 12:45 p. m., 6/16/61. The bus which departs from Jacksonville at 7:30 a. m. takes a different route and arrives at St. Petersburg at 5:10 p. m., 6/16/61. Two of the freedom riders who have not been identified plan to leave the group at Tampa, Florida, and return to New York by air. The remaining 12 members of the group plan to return to New York by air from St. Petersburg. A list of these freedom riders is attached.

Memorandum for Mr. Belmont

Lieutenant [] was also informed by [] that a group of 18 ministers and rabbis would leave Washington, D. C., by Greyhound bus at 11:55 a. m., 6/13/61 and will spend the night of 6/13/61 at Shaw University, Raleigh, North Carolina. On 6/14/61 they will proceed by Greyhound bus to Sumter, South Carolina; Savannah, Georgia; and Jacksonville, Florida; arriving in Jacksonville at 7:45 a. m., 6/15/61. They will leave Jacksonville on the same day and proceed to Tallahassee where they intend to test the airport facilities and then travel to New York via Eastern Air Lines leaving Tallahassee at 3:25 p. m., 6/15/61. A list of the members of this group is attached.

Both the union and professional group, and the group of rabbis and ministers are integrated and it is understood that of the 18 rabbis and ministers seven are Negro and eleven are white. The union and professional group is reportedly made up of nine whites and five Negroes. It is not known which individuals are Negroes or which individuals are white.

[] "Jacksonville, North Carolina, Daily News," advised on 6/12/61 that [] CORE, Washington, D. C., has been quoted as saying the freedom riders have retained attorneys and have requested protection from local authorities.

Bennett M. Hirsh advised the Jacksonville Office on 6/12/61 that Robert Myers, President of the Jewish Temple at Jacksonville, is in receipt of a letter dated 6/9/61 from Albert Vorspan, Director, Commission on Social Action of Reformed Judaism of the Union of American Hebrew Congregation in New York City. Vorspan stated in his letter that an integrated group of freedom riders consisting of rabbis and ministers will arrive at Jacksonville 6/15/61. They will have breakfast at the bus terminal and will test the facilities of the bus station.

[] Intelligence Division, Jacksonville PD advised on 6/12/61 that the Jacksonville PD is following this situation and plans to make no arrests unless there is trouble.

Sources in Los Angeles, whose reliability has not been determined, but who are in a position to furnish reliable information, have advised that CORE will sponsor a meeting to be held 6/18/61 in the Los Angeles Sports Arena. Approximately 30,000 are expected to attend including Governor Edmund G. Brown and California Attorney General Stanley Mosk. It is reported that the principal speaker will be Martin Luther King. copy

The Los Angeles sources have also advised that many Negroes feel their rights have not been properly protected by the Los Angeles Police and are threatening to fight if they are molested or threatened by the Los Angeles Police or by members of the Caucasian race. There is allegedly racial friction in the Los Angeles area arising from racial conditions in the Southern States and in view of the fact that there are many white people from the South in Los Angeles.
